product summary

Sun is a very strengthening, grounding, and emotionally uplifting essential oil blend formulated to enhance physical and emotional intimacy for men and bring balance to male hormones. It supports male physical performance and allows them to be more available emotionally for their partner.*

Although Sun is formulated for men, women also have some male hormones, and many women must be both mother and father to their children. This blend will help to access your more masculine side and to have the strength and authority necessary to provide the guidance and discipline a child would normally receive from their father.*

suggested use

- Add 8-10 drops to ½ cup Clay Vitality or Vitality Bath Salts and mix into warm bath water to help restore energy and physical vigor.*
- Put 1-2 drops on a tissue, cotton ball, or your hands and inhale as needed for general debility, mental and emotional exhaustion, or for its aphrodisiac effects.*
- Dilute 10 to 12 drops in 1 ounce of carrier oil and massage over the Sacral Chakra area to support and vitalize reproductive energy.*
- Apply 1 to 2 drops on the foot reflex points for the reproductive organs, gently stimulating the points as you massage in the oil.*
